

WORKSHOP PRESENTER

Dr. Jon Lange provides organization development, mediation and facilitation, training, strategic planning, and coaching services to individuals, groups and organizations, and has done so for three decades. (See www.jonlangeconsulting.com) Jon negotiates union-management contracts, facilitates dozens of challenging problem-solving efforts, and mediates disputes. He assists leadership teams with management consulting and coaching to middle managers and senior executives throughout the Rogue Valley and beyond. He has trained managers at the Boeing Company, Bear Creek Corporation, ProTool, Knife River, Asante, Providence and a dozen other hospitals and healthcare entities; as well as many city, state and federal agencies. Jon, who is the immediate past chair of the board at Resolve: The Center for Dispute Resolution and Restorative Justice (formerly called "Mediation Works), is a published author and emeritus faculty member at Southern Oregon University, where he taught and conducted research on conflict resolution and mediation.
