

2017 Southern Oregon University Summer Institute

Professional Development Courses for Teachers

Leadership through Innovation

Six Strands to Choose From

Advanced Content Matter

June 19-23, Teaching and Learning Grammar in context

August 6-11, Stanford Academy for Excellence in Biology Teaching

Early Childhood Education

July 17-30, Self-Regulation Narratives

STEM Education

June 10, Creating Meaningful Watershed Connections

June 10-17, Resources & People (RAP) Camp

June 19-21, Sustainable Forestry High School Tour

Dates Vary, Making Outdoor School an Integral Part of the Learning

Progressions

July 18-19, Garden Education: Growing Classroom

July 23-August 4, National Park Tour: Climate Connections

August 14-17, August Institute

August 16-17, Diack Ecological Inquiry

Educational Technology

July 10-21, Online and Blended Teaching

Personalized Learning

July 27-28, Designing Digital Learning for All Students

Holistic Education

September 14-17, Holistic Teaching and Learning Conference

Southern Oregon University is committed to providing professional development opportunities for the region's classroom teachers.

Classes Run from June to September

Earn SOU graduate credits at the reduced tuition rate of $70/credit* (excludes ED 507s which run at normal tuition)

For More Information:

Please contact Kayla Rapet at 541-552-8436 or rapetk1@sou.edu

You can also visit our website at <https://inside.sou.edu/dce/teachers.html>

Thanks to Our Community Sponsors!

See attached flyers for more information. Contact Kayla Rapet with questions @ rapetk1@sou.edu. In-depth class schedule to follow.