BIOGRAPHIES

Stephanie Kuborssy was born and raised in Mountain View, California. She began playing clarinet and reading music in the fifth grade, and excelled in music throughout middle school. In high school, she participated in all things music. She picked up the baritone sax and played in the jazz band for four years, as well as four years in Symphony Orchestra. She also participated in Marching Band for four years where she held the position of section leader and field staff.

During her sophomore year of high school, Stephanie played in the Wind Ensemble and competed in the Pacific Basin Music Festival in Hawaii. She also sang in the Advanced Choir which toured to Puerto Rico her junior year. Stephanie served for four years on Music Council, with the last year holding the position of President. She also has a love for musical theater, and participated in several shows, including Thoroughly Modern Millie, The Boyfriend, Suessical, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolored Dreamcoat and many more. Stephanie graduated high school in 2012 and earned the John Philip Sousa Band Award as a part of her contribution.

Stephanie attends Southern Oregon University where she will graduate in June, 2016, with a Bachelor of Science in Music Instruction and a Minor in Environmental Studies and Policy. Since her time here in Oregon, she has played in the pit orchestra for the production of Little Shop of Horrors as well as the pit orchestra for 50 shows in the Oregon Shakespeare Festival's production of Into The Woods. She has been hired as the clarinet coach for Ashland Middle School's Chamber Music Camp over the summer. Stephanie has been a member of the Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon, Cascade Clarinet Consort, Wind Ensemble, and Chamber Choir during her undergraduate career. She also teaches two students privately. Stephanie auditioned for and received the Southern Oregon University Solo Concerto Competition in 2016. She will be headed to the University of Pacific in the fall to pursue a Master in Music
