Inside OLLI: Robbi McMinimy

Robbi reports no change from last month. She is hopeful to be on pace for next term.

Member Memorials: Baiba Calhoun

Baiba reports one death, the Hon. E. Kendall Clark on August 21, 2019. Installation of a second cork board is being pursued for Medford HEC.

No changes from last month.

SIG's: Barb Barasa

One new SIG has started on the topic of "U.S. Constitution", considering current events. It is a continuation of the class Betsy Massie taught during Fall term. They plan to continue through the impeachment proceedings. The SIG will not focus on political issues. The Anthro SIG, which has been going for many years has been suspended due to declining interest and due to Victoria Leo not feeling up to continuing.

Social Crew: Rob Joseph

Rob has worked 2 hours on emails regarding Con-Cons and Café Noir. Rob is coordinating volunteer Hosts for the Café Noir performances.

Office Coordination: Maureen Wilson-Jarrad with Marta Gomez and Ruthie Sloan

Maureen reports 45 hours for office support, including her time to schedule.

MSC Chair: Andrea Gay

I have been communicating with other team members and committees, working to see how we can support one another more broadly to maximize success in each program. I am attending leadership meetings and participating in Team OLLI 2. Currently I have been focused on promoting Café Noir and meeting the needs there in terms of member services. Barb Klein, as previous Chair has submitted 2025 Strategic Planning Committee Notes to Larry, Sally, Pat and Elisabeth. I reviewed the notes and support what was submitted, understanding that changes may occur along the way

Leadership Development and Recruitment Committee

Future Space Needs November 2019 Report

South Building: Construction continues ahead of schedule and is now expected to be completed in early December. The HVAC issues have been resolved but resulted in moving one of the units to the edge of the new classroom C. To minimize noise from vibrations, sound insulation and a noise deadening ceiling were installed. Inspections have been completed and interior painting is underway. South and north exterior painting depends on the weather. (Many thanks to the Landscaping Committee volunteers and Sandy Hansen for trimming the trees overhanging the courtyard wall!)

Room C: Demo of the existing floor tile in the old Room C in underway. Installation of the new carpet tiles and restroom vinyl flooring will be done between Thanksgiving and Christmas. Plans for the lighting fixtures and order products are now underway. During March we will install one filtered water fountain/bottle filler unit and also a non-refrigerated vending machine with healthy snacks and Keurig coffee pods. Also in March the existing A/V will be removed and some of it reused in the new Room C. When all is done, the ceiling will be repaired/repainted and the beautiful Giving Garden mural will be hung. The room is used as a classroom in January and February but will be ready for the grand opening event on March 27.

Décor: A sample classroom chair has been received and tested with positive feedback. The furniture selection for the lounge and SIG room is in-progress and orders should be placed in the coming weeks. The office has all new windows and the new blinds will be installed in December.

SOU-IT has received initial bids for new A/V equipment in the South building. Some iterations are required, but most prices are within expectations. The one significant exception is the cost of the two 100" TVs that we planned to install in the large E classroom. When the budget was prepared two years ago, we had hoped the cost of extra-large TVs would come down rapidly. Although prices have decreased, they remain around $8k each, compared to the $4k budgeted.

Café Noir: Café Noir has sold 344 of the 347 available seats. All costs are not yet known but we will certainly overachieve the $3000 profit in the budget and most likely achieve the $8500 profit in the revised budget that was presented to the Finance Committee last month. Thank you for your support.

Financials

Final costs will not be known until all furnishings, technology, and additional charges from the sub-contractors are final. This will be sometime in January/February. Best estimates at this point, given the Café Noir income, will require using about $10k of the $25k of operating funds approved by the Council in 2018-19.

OLLI Council, Report from CCO, Nov. 2019

Communications and Community Relations Committee—Peggy Evans, chair

Course Catalogue: Winter term catalogues have been produced and distributed. Thanks to Kay Godwin and her team who physically move the catalogues. We continue to work on making our distribution system more efficient. We've discovered that the Jackson County Library system could use many more catalogues than what they are currently receiving. We will be reexamining their numbers. We distributed catalogues to select ambassadors and partners. The workplan for the spring catalogue is being refined and distributed to all who participate in that process.

Open House 2020: The Open House is scheduled for Friday, July 24, in the Stevenson Union. We are beginning to think about our theme of “Wellbeing” in its various aspects (financial, social, physical, community, purpose-filled). Several local organizations are currently working on some aspect or aspects of this, including the Ashland Chamber of Commerce, Asante Ashland, the Ashland YMCA, and the Ashland Senior Advisory Committee. Sandy Theis, Margaret Pashko, and I met with Sheila Clough, CEO of Asante Ashland, to begin the process.

Community lectures: Camille Korsmo, lead.

We had another full house for John Almaguer's excellent lecture on Nov. 1 on the history of immigration in the U.S., up to and including current programs and practices. The Winter Term lectures were announced in the course catalogue. The Spring Term lecture for May has been selected: an introduction to the Collaborative Theatre Project. The April lecture has yet to be finalized. The staff of KS Wild has been invited to report on that organization's recent work in protecting and restoring the natural resources of our region (see kswild.org). Linda Hart has agreed to co-chair the lecture series in 2020-21. Pauline Black is working to find the other co-chair. Linda and Camille have met to discuss the mechanics of the lecture program -- deadlines, volunteers, etc. -- as well as potential future lecture topics. They will work together to schedule the speakers for Fall Term of 2020. Camille shall continue as a lecture volunteer during the next academic year.

Ambassadors: Colett Allen, Lead

We distributed catalogs to our Ambassadors. Ambassadors have been asked to pick up the old catalogs when they distribute the new ones. We will then reevaluate the number of catalogs needed at each location. We have several new Ambassadors and have met with them to ensure that they have what they need.

Constant Contact member communications: Anne Bellegia: Anne supported LDRC with a Team OLLI 2 PowerPoint presentation. She assisted Café Noir publicity by providing reservation requests to Lorraine Vail as received and making alterations to the reservation system and event webpage as performances sold out. For the lecture series, she sent a reminder of the November 1 lecture to registrants and produced a check in list.

Publicity: Anne Bellegia: Margaret Pashko and Karen Culver represented OLLI at a table at the AARP Vital Aging Conference on November 16; almost 100 attendees picked up the winter catalogue and other materials. Anne pitched Rosebud Media on coverage of Café Noir and/or a follow up story by Maureen Battistella about the status of the ReNEWall project and/or a repurposing of the Camp White barracks as OLLI classrooms, but to date there has been no response. Anne agreed to do a presentation at the Ashland YMCA Wellness Wednesday on February 26 on how mental stimulation and social connection contribute to wellbeing; there's an opportunity to mention the Spring Special, and possibly our Open House.

Media Relations: Jim Coleman has agreed to serve as OLLI's media relations lead. Anne, Jim, and I met with Joe Mosley, SOU Director of Community and Media Relations.

Promotion: Anne Bellegia: Anne produced a revised OLLI business card. She sent an e-blast to approximately 950 lapsed former OLLI members announcing the Winter 2020 catalogue. Anne has asked the Curriculum Committee to weigh in on a reprint or revision of the Teach at OLLI brochure.

Advertising: Anne Bellegia: Provided artwork for OLLI's ad in the Rogue Valley Manor resident telephone directory in support of instructor recruitment and membership

Community Partners: Mindy Ferris, lead: Anne and I met with Mindy to discuss the next steps for developing more yearlong contact with community partners—recruitment of three captains, one for each of our three groups of cultural, educational and senior services partners; captains will contact OLLI members representing our partners in the Community Partner Directory to determine interest in an ongoing liaison role. Leads will also have responsibilities at the Open House in July.

Sponsor contact: Anne produced a rate sheet for Asante's sponsorship of the Spring 2020 catalog and July Open House; after the meeting that was held with Sheila Clough, Asante Ashland CEO, she followed up with Lindsey Hicks, Asante Marketing Consultant, on the details.

Miscellaneous: Anne and I participated in an inter-committee/staff meeting on the Campbell Opening Celebration; Anne agreed to handle the event marketing and registration process and to research a possible commemorative giveaway

Report to OLLI Council

Curriculum Committee

November 26, 2019

Fall 2019:

1. Thanks to Cathy Kreisman, CC administered an electronic survey to gather feedback from students in the classes taught by Fall NTOs. CC will be meeting in early December to review the “three-legged stool” of our metrics for Great OLLI Classes: liaisons’ observation, student feedback, and attendance trends.

2. We are gathering ideas for instructor workshops via a survey of 2019 instructors.

Winter 2020:

3. The liaisons are well launched into their 22 one on one meetings with the NTOs for Winter term.

4. CC Initiative #1: Instructor Support:

a. Mid-Winter: An Instructor Workshop on a topic determined by the instructor survey, and a second workshop on avoiding inappropriate remarks in class, entitled “Ooops! I thought it was funny.”

b. Late Winter: “Ignite the Spark” – a 90 minute meeting to encourage new OLLI instructors to propose a course

c. Pilot: Orientation to Teaching at OLLI for Spring NTOs.

d. Early Spring: and second “Ignite the Spark” and then a “Fan the Flame” – a follow up to “Ignite the Spark” for hands on help for new Instructors as they complete course proposals for Fall 2020.

Spring 2020 Course Proposal window opens December 1 through 31. During that time, three potential new members of CC will be interning with their respective liaisons under Sara’s supervision.

Respectfully submitted, Susan Stitham and Sara Brown, Co-chairs
