Course # 409/509 Course Title Practicum

1. Describe the expectations for learning outcomes in the graduate-level component of this course as they relate to analysis, critical thinking, synthesis and/or evaluation.

This is periodically offered around specific issues/projects or individual practicums. Meeting times vary depending on the number of ELUs. This course ranges from 1-12 credits, and may be repeated for up to 12 credits.

2. Indicate ☒ and describe the activities/requirements that will be expected of graduate students in this class that are beyond or in place of activities/requirements of undergraduate students. Explain how each activity will provide opportunities to assess student development in the outcomes detailed above.

☐ Additional class or seminar session(s) required. Describe:

☒ Additional readings required. Describe:

Graduate students will be expected to explicitly connect theory to their practicum. This will entail a higher level of reading, dependent upon the number of credits taken.

☒ Additional written assignments required. Describe:

The end of term assignment will be different than the undergraduate end of term project. Graduate students will be required to produce a written report of their practicum reflecting on how theory informed their work, as well as what insights their work gave to feminist and/or queer theories.

☒ Other activities/requirements. Describe:

Finally, students will be asked to explicitly reflect on how their practicum experience informs their graduate level work more broadly.
