

CELEBRATING OUR

11

YEAR ANNIVERSARY!

2018-19 CAMPUS THEME PRESENTATIONS

FROM IGNORANCE TO WISDOM

Indigenous Peoples' Day

Earth Protectors: Indigenous Solidarity with the Earth, North and South

Dr. Jim Phillips, author of Honduras in Dangerous Times

Monday, October 8, 2018 • 3 – 5:30 pm

SOU Student Union, Rogue River Room

Free Admission

Ignorance, Wisdom and the Etymological Fallacy

What can we learn from the history of words? This interactive presentation explores the history and development of the words “ignorance” and “wisdom,” the limits of word history and the mechanism of semantic change. Also considered will be techniques to study and pin down the meanings of words for wisdom and ignorance.

Presenter: Dr. Edwin Battistella, Professor of English

Tuesday, October 30, 2018 • 7 pm

SOU Campus • Student Union #319