2020 New Students (2019 Cohort) n=17

CMHC faculty have encouraged me to join professional mental health organizations The application process was managed effectively The academic advising process meets my needs Faculty mentoring meets my needs The Program Coordinator (Doug Smith) is helpful to students. The Clinical Coordinator (Fraser Pierson) is helpful to students. The CMHC Office Coordinator (Angel McDonald) is helpful to students The CMHC Faculty are helpful to students I am satisfied with the overall class schedule Classroom facilities are conducive to learning I have access to the educational resources I need (technology, library, etc.) The impact of the program on my personal or family life is manageable The CMHC program is meeting my expectations I would recommend this program to other potential students In general, course syllabi adequately describe course objectives In general, course syllabi adequately describe grading criteria In general, grading is fair Workload across courses is appropriate CMHC courses are academically challenging Class size in content courses (e.g. 571, 570) is conducive to learning Class size in experiential courses (e.g. 502, 504, 506, 510) is conducive to learning 25 n

50

75